BLAINE R YOUNG vs DAVID SALOMON NOTICE TO RESPONDENT

A Peace Order Petition alleges that you have committed one or more prohibited acts. On the basis of the Petition this Temporary Peace Order has been issued. Violation of this Temporary Peace Order may be a crime or contempt of court or both, and result in imprisonment or fine or both.

In order to respond to the allegation(s) contained in the Petition, you must appear in court at the Final Peace Order hearing as notified on page 1 of this Temporary Peace Order. If at the hearing the Court finds by clear and convincing evidence that a prohibited act occurred within 30 days before the filing of the Petition, and is likely to occur in the future, the Court may issue a Peace Order against you, whether you appear or fail to appear, and may order all or part of the relief requested by the Petitioner or granted in this Temporary Peace Order. This relief may include an order to: refrain from committing or threatening to commit a prohibited act; refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing the Petitioner; refrain from entering the Petitioner's residence; remain away from the Petitioner's place of employment, school, or temporary residence; participate in counseling; mediation; and pay the cost of these proceedings. A Final Peace Order may be effective for as long as six (6) months and can be extended an additional six (6) months for good cause, after notice to parties and a hearing.

If you fail to appear in court and a Peace Order is issued against you, you will be served by first-class mail at your last known address with the Final Peace Order and all other notices concerning the Peace Order. The Peace Order will be valid and enforceable whether you are or are not in court and whether you do or do not actually receive it. You also may obtain a copy of the Peace Order from the District Court clerk. It is your responsibility to notify the court in writing of any change of address.

NOTICE TO ALL PARTIES

Each party may be represented by an attorney at the Peace Order hearing. Due to the emergency nature of the hearing, however, the hearing may be held even if a party requests more time to obtain an attorney.
